

KnowledgeBank Disclaimer and Terms & Conditions for Submission of Research

The Regional Forum requires the research submitted to be your work or the work of your organisation. If the research contains copyright material from other sources then the report author is personally responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce this. We prefer research submissions to be in a PDF format.

All research submissions are reviewed by the Editor of KnowledgeBank. Decisions on inclusion are based solely upon the quality of the submission and its relevance to the work and development of the voluntary and community sector in Yorkshire and the Humber.

The Regional Forum has made all reasonable efforts to ensure that information provided through this site is accurate. The opinions, findings, recommendations, and conclusions expressed in the research are those of the author(s) indicated.

The Regional Forum takes responsibility for the research it has undertaken but cannot be held responsible for any omissions, errors in, or the correctness of information contained in research commissioned by other organisations. Any queries regarding the content of an organisation's research should be directed to that specific organisation.

If any research documents contain links to external websites, the Regional Forum does not accept responsibility for the information contained on these sites. The inclusion of external links does not represent any endorsement by the Regional Forum.
